

ESTELA CAMACHO

Estela lived in San Jose since her teen years. She attended Overfelt High School and Evergreen Valley College. She has extensive knowledge in sharing the Spanish language to her contemporaries. She taught Sign Language to students that are hard of hearing for the past 13 years.

She is happily dedicated to her husband and two wonderful daughters. She enjoys hiking, cooking traditional Mexican food, and always willing to try food from different countries. She is made aware of the ever changing health care system. It is her desire to participate and volunteer her efforts on caring solutions to her community.
